IN THE LABOUR COURT GOA, DAMAN AND DIU, PANAJI-GOA

(Before Dr. Renato de Noronha, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Application No.: LCC/41/83

1. Shri Babu Shettigar — Applicant
V/s.
1. Shri K. K. Khanna — Opponent
M/s. Philoo Flexible Packaging
Applicant represented by Shri Subhas Naik George, Office Bearer of the Union.

Panaji. Dated: 4-2-1985

AWARD

in short the Act, claiming from the latter a total amount of Rs. 2,362/- as per the details shown in the annexure.

2. The Opponent, in his written statement, has stated that the applicant himself resigned and left the job causing losses to the company by wastage of material. He has further stated that he is not mentally sound and not fit for work. His resignation was accepted from 21st September, 1983.

3. There was a rejoinder filed by the applicant denying the allegations made by the Opponent.

4. Following issue was framed by the Court:

"Whether the applicant is entitled to the amounts claimed?"

4. On this issue the applicant examined himself and also one witness. The Opponent, did not lead any evidence.

The applicant, in his statement before the Court, has claimed from the Opponent his salary for the days he had worked at the rate of Rs. 675/- per month and stated that, regarding notice pay and compensation, since a reference is pending on the matter, he drops the said claim in this application.

The applicant's witness, Shri M. B. Sopan, who is a Labour Inspector, has stated that he has investigated into the complaint of the applicant and found that the applicant was not paid his wages from 1-9-1983 till 22-9-1983 which, at the rate of Rs. 675/- per month, would amount to Rs. 495/-. Neither the applicant nor his witness were cross examined by the Opponent.

5. The Opponent also gave his statement before the Court, in which he admitted the applicant's claim for earned wages only.

6. Since, with the dropping of the claim of the applicant of notice pay and retrenchment compensation, the dispute is confined to wages of 21 days, which the opponent admitted as due to the applicant, I pass the following order:

ORDER

The Opponent is directed to pay to the applicant Rs. 495/- (Rupees Four Hundred and Ninety Five Only) of his earned wages for 21 days of September 1983 at the rate of Rs. 675/- per month with costs of Rs. 100/-.

— Opponents

Applicants represented by Shri S. Naik George, Secretary of the Union.

Panaji, Dated: 10-1-1985.

AWARD

This common Award shall dispose of the above applications filed by the above applicants against the above Opponents under Section 33C(2) of the I.D.A., 1947, in short the Act, claiming from the latter the total amount of Rs. 9,320-65, Rs. 10,993-06, Rs. 14,787-20, Rs. 11,167-22, Rs. 10,938-68, Rs. 9,270-68, Rs. 7,436-48, Rs. 4,001-90, Rs. 8,085-20, Rs. 6,204-34, Rs. 5,078-37, Rs. 8,068-10, Rs. 9,885-20, respectively, of their unpaid wages, V.D.A., Bonus and other benefits, as per the details shown in the annexures to their applications.

2. It is applicants' case, that all of them are working for the Opponent and have not been paid of their wages and other allowances for the period shown in their annexures to the applications.

3. The Opponents filed their Written Statement raising preliminary objections in respect of the jurisdiction of this Court to entertain the said applications and, on the merits, making various submissions on the claims made by the applicants.

4. After issues were framed and the preliminary objections raised by the Opponents dismissed by the Court by its Order dated 26-3-1984, evidence was led by the applicants on the merits. However, before the said evidence was concluded, the parties arrived at an amicable settlement of the dispute and approached the Court with an application signed by all of them, their representatives and by the Opponents, which application reads as follows:

"BOTH the parties above named have arrived at an amicable settlement on 26th October 1984 on the above disputes pending before this Hon'ble Court.

As per the settlement the Opponent agrees to pay the dues of 14 work persons as mentioned in annexure 'A' in monthly instalments on the 15th of every month beginning from November 1984.

The parties herewith submit signed copies of the settlement and pray that this Hon'ble Court may pass orders as per the terms of this settlement. The parties also pray that the cost of these applications may be awarded to the applicants. The parties further pray that a penal interest of 18 p.c. per annum should be awarded in favour of the applicants in case the opponents default in paying the instalments on the 15th of every month as agreed in the settlement.

In witness thereof, the parties put their signatures on this 21st day of December 1984 at Panjim, Goa."

5. The terms of settlement arrived at between the parties are as follows.

"1. It has been agreed between the parties that as on date of this settlement the employer M/s. Agencia Commercial Maritima has to pay the dues of 14 work person by way of arrears of salaries for the period March 1983 to March 1984, Bonus for the years 1981-82 and 1982-83, V.D.A. for the Year 1975, increments & V.D.A. for the year 1981-82 and allowances upto July 1984 as per Annexure 'A' attached hereto. The total dues mentioned in Annexure 'A' have been arrived at after deducting the advances received by the workpersons from the employer till the date of this settlement.

2. It is agreed between the parties that the employer M/s. Agencia Commercial Maritima, shall pay the total dues mentioned in Annexure 'A' in monthly instalments on the 15th of every month beginning from November 1984. It is also agreed that the employer shall pay the dues in instalments to each of the 14 workpersons as shown in Annexure 'B' attached hereto. It is further agreed that, besides the instalments mentioned in Annexure 'B' the employer shall pay the salaries of each workperson for the current months on or before the 7th day of the following month.

3. The parties agree to jointly submit signed copies of the settlement to the Commissioner Labour & Employment and other concerned authorities with a request to register the same as a settlement under the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947.

4. It is agreed that the workpersons represented by the Union should file an application before the Labour Court, Goa, Daman & Diu, Panjim, Goa, for passing orders on their Application Nos. LCC/23/83 to LCC/28/83, LCC/31/83, LCC/33/83 to LCC/36/83 and LCC/8/84 to LCC/21/84 pending before the said Court and the Management should agree to the same."

The annexure 'A' and 'B' referred to in the above terms showing the details of the dues of each of the applicants and the mode of payments of the instalments also form part of the settlement terms filed by the parties.

6. The above terms are fair and just to all the parties, and, therefore, I accept them and pass the following order:

ORDER

Consent Award in terms of the above settlement is hereby made and all the applications are disposed off. Costs of Rs. 100/- to be paid by the Opponent to each of the applicants. In case the instalments referred to in the settlement are not paid on the dates fixed in the annexure 'B', interest at the rate of 18 p. c. agreed upon between the parties will have to be paid to the applicants on each instalment fallen due and not paid.

No. 28/4/85-ILD

The following Award given by the Industrial Tribunal, Goa, Daman and Diu is hereby published as required under the provisions of Section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act XIV of 1947).

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

Subhash V. Elekar, Under Secretary (Industries and Labour).

Panaji, 14th February, 1985.

IN THE LABOUR COURT GOA, DAMAN AND DIU, PANAJI GOA

(Before Dr. Renato de Noronha, Hon'ble Presiding Officer)

Application No.: LCC/21/80

1. Shri Satchit P. Bhatikar — Applicant
V/s.
1. M/s. Agencia Caetano F. F. de Figueiredo — Opponent
Opponent represented by Shri P. K. Lele, Labour Advisor.

Panaji, Dated: 10-12-1984

AWARD

This is an application filed by the above applicant against the above Opponent under Section 33C(2) of the I.D.A., 1947, in short the Act, claiming from the latter the total amount of Rs. 9,520-99, as per the details given in the annexure to the application.

2. It is applicant's case, that he was working as Accounts Clerk with the Opponent from June 1967 to December 1970. The employer had to pay him the amounts specified in the statement annexed to the application and, as it was not paid, conciliation proceedings were initiated in the Labour Commissioner's Office, where the Opponent employer admitted the applicant's claim and agreed to pay it in instalments and actually paid some instalments, as shown in the statement. The balance amount of Rs. 9,520-99 has not been paid so far.

3. The Opponent, in its written statement, has denied the applicant's claim and stated that no amounts are due to the applicant, who himself withdrew his claim from the Labour Commissioner's office. The Opponent, out of pity, gave him over and above any amount if at all due to the applicant various sums totalling Rs. 3,700/-, as per the statement annexed, after clearing all the salary dues. Over and above this amount, the Opponent lent him Rs. 700/- to assist him when he came to his residence crying that one of his relatives had a heart attack, which the applicant has not returned so far. The Opponent also lent to the applicant, when he was working for him, furniture items and one Esso Gas Cylinder with valve and stove. Without even informing the Opponent, the applicant started working elsewhere and from December 1969 was mostly absent. At that time, the Opponent, on various occasions, asked the applicant to return the borrowed items which are worth a few thousands, but the applicant has failed to return them till today.

4. In his rejoinder, the applicant denied that he was withdrawn the claim from the Labour Commissioner's office; the Opponent admitted the claim and, as it agreed to pay in instalments, the Commissioner settled the claim; the Opponent paid some amount as it can be seen from the statement filed, which payment the opponent has also admitted. Out of the total claim admitted, the applicant has received Rs. 3,300/-; the amount received by the applicant is the part payment of the claim settled before the Labour Commissioner. The remaining allegations made by the opponent including the furniture items, are denied except the one regarding the Esso Gas which was given to the applicant by the Opponent for his permanent use, as his own, taking into consideration the services the applicant was rendering to the Opponent. The Opponent never raised before the Labour Commissioner any claim regarding this cylinder. As far as the allegation of absence is concerned, it is false, as the applicant has attended regularly the office of the Opponent till December 1970.

5. Following issues were framed by the Court:

"1. Whether the Applicant proves that he is entitled to the amounts claimed in his application.

2. Whether the Opponent proves that he does not owe anything to the Applicant and that, out of pity, he has given him Rs. 3,700/- and assisted him with Rs. 700/- which he did not return so far.

3. Whether the Opponent proves that he has also lent to the applicant some furniture items, gas cylinder with valve and stove which he did not return so far.

4. Whether the Opponent proves that the applicant himself withdrew his claim from Labour Commissioner, as he had no grounds.

5. What relief?"

6. The evidence in this case consists only of the statements given in Court by the applicant and the Opponent.

From the above statements, the following facts can be considered as admitted:

- i) That the applicant was drawing a salary of Rs. 350/- per month;
- ii) That he worked for the Opponent from May 1967 till December 1970; and
- iii) That, for sometime, he was given by the Opponent office premises for his residence, but no payment was agreed to be made to the Opponent for the supply of such accommodation. Besides, he was also given a gas cylinder with valve and stove for his use.

7. Regarding salary dues, the applicant, in his statement of Accounts (Exh. A-1), has shown his salary arrears upto May 1970 at the rate of Rs. 350/- per month as ... Rs. 2,870-00

In the statement of Accounts Exh A-3 Colly., his salary from June to December at the same rate is shown as ... Rs. 2,450-00

This totals ... Rs. 5,320-00

The applicant, as per the statement Exh A-3, has received in cash... Rs. 1,230/-

And, as per his statement Exh A-4 ... Rs. 3,300/-

Which totals ... Rs. 4,530/-

The receipts Exh. E-1 colly. filed by the employer read with the bank account papers also filed by the employer would show that, except for Rs. 500/- mentioned in receipt dated 12-5-1975, Rs. 50/- mentioned in receipt dated 21-6-1975, Rs. 150/- shown in receipt dated 19-7-1975 and Rs. 750/- shown in receipt dated 9-8-1975 (not considering the amount of Rs. 300/- mentioned in receipt dated 28-6-1975), all others were paid by cheques.

8. Regarding the amount of Rs. 300/- mentioned in receipt dated 28-6-1975, it is contended by the employer that the said amount is not the same referred to in the bank papers Exh 0-2 as having been paid by cheque on 1-7-1976, while the employee's contention is that this is the same and the date 1st July mentioned in the bank papers is the date of collection by the bank and the date of receipt is the date when the cheque was given to the applicant. Comparing the dates of other receipts when payment was made by cheques, it is seen that the bank usually took 2-4 days to credit the amounts and, therefore, the allegation of the employer that these are 2 different payments, one in cash and the other by cheque, cannot be accepted. Moreover, it is also difficult to believe that the employer having paid Rs. 300/- in cash to the applicant on 28th June, would issue him soon after cheque for the same amount.

9. From the above, it is seen that the applicant, whose salary dues total Rs. 5320/- (Exh A-1 and A-3), has received payment in cash and by cheques totalling Rs. 4,530/-.

From the bank documents Exh 0-2 it is shown that, on 24-4-1979, the applicant was paid by cheque Rs. 100/- by the Opponent, which fact the applicant has admitted as correct. Thus, the total amount received by the applicant is Rs. 4,630/- out of his salary dues of Rs. 5,320/-; so the balance in his favour is Rs. 690/-, which he is entitled to receive from the employer opponent.

10. Regarding other dues claimed by the Opponent, namely Rs. 50/- per month of increment and house rent at the rate of Rs. 150/- per month, the applicant has not led any evidence to prove such claims. On record, we have only the bare statement of the applicant and of the Opponent to this effect, which are contradictory.

11. Finally, regarding bond amount also claimed by the applicant from the Opponent: There is no sufficient evidence to come to the conclusion that the Opponent had undertaken to pay the same when he engaged the applicant in this job. Here too the evidence consists of word against word.

12. Considering now the counter claim of the Opponent regarding the gas cylinder and stove, I fail to see as to how the said items are connected with the services of the applicant and, therefore, this court has no jurisdiction to entertain the Opponent's claim in this respect. The Opponent will have to avail proper legal means to recover the said items from the applicant.

13. In the above premises, I pass the following order:

ORDER

The applicant's claim of his salary dues till December 1970 is hereby granted but restricting to Rs. 690/- only (Rupees Six Hundred and Ninety Only), which amount will have to be paid by the Opponent to the applicant within 30 days.

The Counter claim of the Opponent is hereby dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

Costs of Rs. 100/- to be paid by the Opponent to the applicant.
